

Solid

Powerman 5000

Get up
I'm staying here 'cause I'm fed up
I spend all my time on rhymes

But it just ain't enough, let's kick it out to the abstract
'Cause I'm right on track

And get it a little bit constricting, yeah, I need some uplifting
Too many time's I've found myself drifting

A lot of it's pure, but it comes out a toxin, I'm dead locked in, I'm dead l ocked in
They're burnin' in water, but I'm drowning in flames

Take it upon yourself, what you see is what you gotta plan
Make one now, like I know that you did
We're gettin' solid
Yeah, yeah, yeah
We're gettin' solid

I woke up in a scene that was bleak and I knew upon death as I was speakin'
Seems I was surrounded by the meek and I knew that the shit could not be weakened

Solid is the brain, solid is the grind
Solid is the pain, solid is the state of mind
Make one now, like I know that you did
We're gettin' solid
Yeah, yeah, right
We're gettin' solid
Alright, alright, okay

Solid is the brain, solid is the grind
Solid is the pain, solid is the state of mind
Solid is the brain, solid is the grind
Solid is the pain, solid is the state of mind
Solid is the brain, solid is the grind
Solid is the pain, solid is the state of mind
Solid is the brain, solid is the grind
Solid is the pain, solid is the state of mind
Solid is the brain, solid is the grind
Solid is the pain, solid is the state of mind
Solid is the brain, solid is the grind
Solid is the pain, solid is the state of mind
Solid is the brain, solid is the grind
Solid is the pain, solid is the state of mind

We're gettin' solid altogether, here we go
Gettin' involved with all the dumb shit goin' down
I make a sound in the dirt, I was born to raise the static
You wish you could, you never had it

Always wanna hang, but you just get hung
Always wanna climb, but you're on the first trunk
Sung like a true trouble maker, speaker
Move and you know I won't go save ya

Gettin' even ain't enough, revenge is the thing

That I bring with the rough stuff
Make one now like I know that you did
We're gettin' solid
Yeah, yeah
We're gettin' solid
Yeah
We're gettin' solid
Yeah, right, yeah, right
