

Hold on to Your Dreams

Pretty Boy Floyd

I'm sure you've heard someone say
No way
That you, you don't have a chance
And it got you mad
And made it toughen you
You took a stance
It's time to rise up and fight
Yeah

You gotta show them all
That you can win
That they were wrong
You gotta take it to the top
Right where you belong
They'll never keep you down too long

You got what it takes
Wait for your break
Pay your dues
You're number one
Your day will come
You can't lose

You've got to hold onto your dreams
Don't let no one take them away
They're not as distant as they seem
Where there's a will there's a way
You've got to hold onto your dreams
They'll come true some day

It's a hard road from rock bottom
When you begin
But you've got to ride the storm out
When skies are dim

You gotta fight
To take them down

So heads up
Show your stuff
Right till the end
When the time is high
Never say die
You will win

You've got to hold onto your dreams
Don't let no one take them away
They're not as distant as they seem
Where there's a will there's a way
You've got to hold onto your dreams
They'll come true some day

I'm sure you've heard someone say
No way
That you, you don't have a chance
And it got you mad
And made it toughen you

You took a stance

It's time to rise up and fight

You've got to hold onto your dreams

You've got to hold onto your dreams
Don't let no one take them away
