

If It Ain't Gonna Change

Pretty Maids

I ain't gotta lot to say,
and i don't like this game your playing,
I realy need you, Baby.

Were a thought could be forever,
Now I realize we'll never,
Never be the same again,

And I know, that i have to regret
When you go,
And there is no one instead.

Chorus:

If it ain't gonna change,
I've been losing my mind
The way to your heart is so hard to find
If it ain't gonna change, and if you want be back someday
I can't carry on, if it ain't gonna change someday.

Hey girl you hold the key,
To unlock me from this misery,
And free me from this change, yeah.
There is a chance that we can make it,
And then why don't we just take it baby?

It could be so easy you'll see, and i know,
All the things that I said, when you go,
Is too late to regret.

Chorus

Tell me do I ever cross your mind,
Do you think on me?
You gonna give me all your love right now,
That's all I need. Oh yeah!

Girl you know, there's a place in my heart,
We could go, we could start from a star.

Chorus
