

Supercute

Prince

She arrived on a 747
/About 20 to 11
She comes to see him, him as in me
She comes to see
And it`s never complicated
Other women cannot fade it
Whenever I call
She gets dressed up and all
Supercute

Maybe it`s cause she comes from East L.A.
But every time I see her body on display
I gotta call her name from the DJ booth
Strobe light flash and you know the truth
Baby got game, she`ll take your loot
Keys to the crib with no dispute
See her dancing in her birthday suit - Supercute

Together we wonder how we got enslaved and why
(It`s time to get freedom for our people)
Jericho falls when we all discern the lie
Yo, why the man wanna lie?
I look at her eyes go wild, she smiles - Supercute

Maybe it`s cause she comes from East L.A.
But every time I see her body on display
I gotta call her name from the DJ booth
Strobe light flash and you know the truth
Baby got game, she`ll take your loot
Keys to the crib with no dispute
See her dancing in her birthday suit - Supercute

On a dare I wanna see if she will share
The kinda toys she uses when I`m not there
None at all she swears
I don`t care
(I don`t care)
I make her buy another one
And a new dress to wear
(vibrator noise)
Goes the toy against her curly hair
Now she must confess
How she really like to play
Or if she don`t, I lower the speed
And bad words she`ll say
Tell me how you play, how you play
Even in her anger she`s still
Supercute

Maybe it`s cause she comes from East L.A.
But every time I see her body on display
I gotta call her name from the DJ booth
Strobe light flash and you know the truth
Baby got game, she`ll take your loot
Keys to the crib with no dispute
See her dancing in her birthday suit - Supercute

Shake it around

When you see her dancing in her birthday suit - Supercute
