

Whatever I Want, Whenever I Want

Punchline

I don't care what anyone has to say
I choose to live my life this way.
So keep your nose where it belongs
I'll keep my ears tied to the song that says I can be what I want to be
I'll choose my own damn destiny
I'm sorry if you disagree.

Listen to the melody

Get out of the way
Get out of the way
I can do whatever I want, whenever I want
Get out of the way
Get out of the way
I've got a brilliant plan
And dreams so big they won't fit in my head.
We're gonna be actors.
We're gonna be astronauts.

We all wanna be rich and famous and in love
Who's to say that we can't do all the things that we think of

Still got a hope, still got a chance,
Still got 10 fingers on my hands.
Still got the desire, still got the fire
Still got the supply for the demand
Still got the outlook I had as a kid
And I still don't see a damn thing wrong with that.

Get out of the way
Get out of the way
I can do whatever I want, whenever I want
Get out of the way
Get out of the way
I've got a brilliant plan
And dreams so big they won't fit in my head.
We're gonna be actors.
We're gonna be astronauts.

We're gonna be doctors,
We're gonna be presidents.
I'm gonna be the biggest rock star
That you probably never heard of.
I'm gonna be the biggest rock star
That you probably never
That you probably never heard of.

I'm gonna be the biggest rock star
In the entire universe.

We all wanna be rich and famous and in love
We all wanna be rich and famous and in love

Get out of the way
Get out of the way
I can do whatever I want, whenever I want
Get out of the way

Get out of the way
Woah!
