

THROUGH THE VALLEY

Ra

Overrated
Honesty is mutilated
Molestation
Buried under indignation
Your life is drowning in defeat
No chance to ever be complete
Disassemble
Just a thought can make you tremble
The crying eyes that surround you
Make you sick
There is no end to the pain
That you inflict
Chaotic voices in the dark
Call out your name
The symbols carved in your soul
Still look the same

Softly, softly
Whisper closer
Shadows beckon in the night
Devils hunting for a weakness
Angels hiding
Dragged into the light!

Razor minded
Everything that's right is blinded
Safety choking
Look at all the bullets loading
It doesn't matter what you think
All logic now begins to sink
Desecration
Poisoning imagination
The crying eyes that surround you
Make you sick
There is no end to the pain
That you inflict
Chaotic voices in the dark
Call out your name
The symbols carved in your soul
Still look the same

Softly, softly
Whisper closer
Shadows beckon in the night
Devils hunting for a weakness
Angels hiding
Dragged into the light!

While keeping the light I see from fading
My dependence not degrading
And through the rage that drives me on Parts broken, missing, taken
Those crying calls will go unheard
My solemn soul's promise absurd
I ram my fist right through the wall
So I can see you fall

Those darkest thoughts that stall my sleep
Creep slowly into each defeat
And every demon that I meet
Guides me closer to the heat
Like fire melting through the ice
My self control divides the lies
And even if you burned away
I'd never listen to your cries!

Softly, softly
Whisper closer
Shadows beckon in the night
Devils hunting for a weakness
Angels hiding
Dragged into the light!
