

Everybody's looking over your shoulder
Seems they can't wait to hear what's next
Everybody's saying she's lookin' older
Could it be there is a cruel subtext to
All this endless adulation
All this reckless infatuation and
I will stay with you tonight in
Case this corset gets too tight and
I will keep you company cause
That's what a sister should be
So they said it was the year of the woman
I believe it was the year of sex
Maybe this'll be the year of the human Maybe that would be a bit complex for
All these endless aberrations
From meaningful expectations and
I will stay with you tonight in
Case this corset gets too tight and
I will keep you company cause
That's what a sister should be
Everybody's lookin' under your mattress
Seems they can't wait to find that pea
Maybe you were never quite the princess
Everybody was afraid you'd be and
All these endless presentations
Must affect your concentration so
I will stay with you tonight in
Case this corset gets too tight and
I will keep you company cause
That's what a sister should be
