Baby Don't Let Me Go

Rachel Proctor

I say things that I don't mean
You look at me like I'm crazy
And baby, sometimes I am
There's a side of me that wants to run
As soon as I get close enough to love,
To touch you with my hands
I start feelin smothered
Start to head for cover
'Cause the only thing I know about this feelin
Is eventually it hurts like hell
I know that pain a little too well
But I, I think you're different somehow
Baby don't let me go
Baby don't you let me go
My restless side might put up a fight
But baby don't let me go
Ohh, ohh
I know I wanna stay with you
But my feet are set on walkin out
My hands are shakin reachin for the door
I hate this fear that teases me
It makes my heavy heart believe
That I just shouldn't be here anymore
Baby hold me down please
Put your arms around me
Right I need to feel like I am safe
'Cause my memories are haunted
But you're all I've ever wanted
Don't give me half a chance to break away
Baby don't let me go
Baby don't you let me go
My restless side might put up a fight
But baby don't let me go
Close that door that I swung open
With those stupid words that fell out of my mouth
I wasn't thinkin straight at all
The only thing I know for sure is
This is where, this is where I belong
Baby don't let me go
Baby don't you let me go
My restless side might put up a fight
But baby don't let me go
My restless side might put up a fight
But baby don't you let me go
Nooo....
