

Where I'm Gonna Land

Rachel Proctor

I'm a little apprehensive
You say you can't see it
You can feel it
When you hold me in your arms
I'm way too indecisive
I can blow it in a moment
Or I can let go of my doubt
Turn it all around

I'm not afraid of giving my heart away
Of lovin' a man
I ain't a fan of playin it safe
I wanna jump right in
I wanna take a chance
You've gotta understand
I'm not afraid of fallin
I'm just scared of where I'm gonna land

I've got few little bruises and some old scars on my heart
Some are harder than others are to heal
Since I met you baby I'm feelin better than ever
Like I never hurt before
I've never wanted anything more

I'm not afraid of giving my heart away
Of lovin' a man
I ain't a fan of playin it safe
I wanna jump right in
I wanna take a chance
You've gotta understand
I'm not afraid of fallin
I'm just scared of where I'm gonna land

It's been a while since I've been
Way out here on a limb
But I'm lovin' every minute of you holdin' my hand

I'm not afraid of giving my heart away
Of lovin' a man
I ain't a fan of playin it safe
I wanna take a chance
You've gotta understand
I'm not afraid of fallin
I'm just scared of where I'm gonna land
