

Purified

Rage

You are rotten to the core
You're an addict, that's for sure
All the time there is a choice
But you ignore the inner voice
Fight your baser instincts now
You should fall on your knees and pray
That there's a second chance

Jump (jump), jump into fire
Burn 'till you're purified
Down (down), down to the wires
Burn my friend, burn my friend

You are such an ignorant
Self complacent permanent
You will waste all that you had
It seems you spoil all that you get
Try to find a hold in life
You should fall on your knees and pray
That you can turn around

Jump (jump), jump into fire
Burn 'till you're purified
Burn (burn) down to the wires
Burn my friend, 'till you're purified

You are rotten to the core
You're an addict, that's for sure
You will waste all that you had
It seems you'll spoil all that you get
Try to find a hold in life
You should fall on your knees and pray
That you can turn around

Jump (jump), jump into fire
Burn 'till you're purified
Down (down) down to the wires
Burn my friend and burn my friend ..

.... 'till you're purified
