

She

Rage

Hey, I know someone who's got a real special love
She is made of sheet metal, her name's Christine

She takes sweet revenge
Hunt them till the end
She takes sweet revenge
Hunt them till the end

She's a lady in red varnish and shining chrome
She's alive and she's more jealous than girls in flesh and blood

All the other guys don't like him so one night
They are smashing Christine but she gets up again

She takes sweet revenge
Hunt them till the end
She takes sweet revenge
Hunt them till the end

She's a lady in red varnish and shining chrome
She's alive and she's more jealous than girls in flesh and blood

She takes sweet revenge

There she's waiting behind the corner
Fixing them with her blinding lights
They won't escape out of this misty night alive
And she won't come to harm!

She is keeping him from all his friends away
He is getting more paranoid each day

She takes sweet revenge
Hunt them till the end
She takes sweet revenge
Hunt them till the end

She's a lady in red varnish and shining chrome
He's a wreck and he's more jealous than boys in flesh and blood

He takes sweet revenge
Hunt them till the end
She takes sweet revenge
And hunt them till the end

She takes sweet revenge
Revange, revange, revange, revange
She takes sweet revenge
