

Tie the Rope

Rage

Some kids of today
Live a boring life, they say
Playing deadly games
Risk their life for just a thrill

No one wants to see how final is eternity
Show me you're alive, I'm waiting for a sign

Frame their gallows, meet their death
They tie the rope they'll hang at last
Frame their gallows, meet their death
They tie the rope they'll hang at last

Open up your eyes
Life means more than being alive
Check out what you've got
The end will be there soon enough

No one wants to see how final is eternity
Show me you're alive, I'm waiting for a sign

Frame their gallows, meet their death
They tie the rope they'll hang at last
Frame their gallows, meet their death
They tie the rope they'll hang at last

They tie the rope, they tie the rope, they tie the rope
They tie the rope, they tie the rope, they tie the rope

No one wants to see how final is eternity
Show me you're alive, I'm waiting for a sign

Some kids of today
Live a boring life, they say
Playing deadly games
Risk their life for just a thrill

Frame their gallows, meet their death
They tie the rope they'll hang at last
Frame their gallows, meet their death
They tie the rope they'll hang at last

Frame their gallows, meet their death
They tie the rope they'll hang at last
Frame their gallows, meet their death
They tie the rope they'll hang at last
