To Make Up My Mind

Raised Fist

I'm needing this time to make up my mind every time when we're lonely together I think of the options I've got you have disturbed me for a long time right now how much is it for me to take chourus: listen I really got to finda way to make up my mind don't play with me like I'm just in your way I'm so sick and tired of this now you are out and there is nowhere to go so take your goddamned kiss you put me up in the dirt you never thought that I got up by just a grab in your skirt and this is my way to say with no delay I'm never going your way chorus:
