

Already Dead

Rancid

Well I drank from.. songs and I died on a devil's tail
Well I'm the best at selling crust and I'll see you all in hell

Cause I'm already dead
Cause I'm already dead

Well I've been to hell and back one million times
And the hurricane came and water all the way it sounds
If god and satan both held my hand
They said stay with us til you understand

Cause I'm already dead
Cause I'm already dead

Well my mother was a whore, she was blind, deaf, and dumb
Well if you're lucky at my cross well you're gonna feel my gun
See I lie, cheat, and steal and I'll break your fucking neck
And you'll curse out my name when you take your last breath

Cause I'm already dead
Cause I'm already dead
Cause I'm already dead
Cause I'm already dead
