

Malfunction

Rancid

Well if you don't see me coming then I'll walk on by Well let it be a warning that you're all gonna die
And if you think that it's coming, way all bet think your jam
When the grim reaper calls me, get in the air

Hey, tuesday's the pressure man,... nice
You don't caution at all, heed my advice

Reach up, no motion, assured destruction
Reach up, no motion, assured destruction

Oh well you think you know the answer then you ain't right
Well my brain is overloaded and I'm ready to fly
Well is there anything left well you're already cold
Cause violence is my bag, justice is my bone

Hey, tuesday's the pressure man,... nice
You don't caution at all, heed my advice

Reach up, no motion, assured destruction
Reach up, no motion, assured destruction

I know you're wrecking now I'm through with you
And you know my targets locked and my aim is true
And I said my peace and I got no time
Well I've seen it all, this is my final line

Hey, tuesday's the pressure man,... nice
You don't caution at all, heed my advice

Reach up, no motion, assured destruction
Reach up, no motion, assured destruction
