

Betta Off Alone

Rasheeda

He treat me right, he did me wrong
He made me weak, he made me strong
He pissed me off, he turned me on
He made me realize I'm betta off alone
(Nowwhat he do) He made me laugh, he made me cry
He kept it real, then he would he lie
He made me cum, he made me fight
He made me realize he just wasn't right

I know relationships got they ups and downs
Or it can seem like circles going round and round
It ain't gon be perfect
Although that's what I want
He was the best candidate and he gettin my vote
Started off good doing everything right
Checkin in like you should coming home at night
Smile in my face and keep me fly
Make me feel proud that he my guy
Ok now why you gotta change, you gotta lie
Learning to play with my mind
I can't believe I waste my time

He treat me right, he did me wrong
He made me weak, he made me strong
He pissed me off, he turned me on
He made me realize I'm betta off alone
(Nowwhat he do) He made me laugh, he made me cry
He kept it real, then he would he lie
He made me cum, he made me fight
He made me realize he just wasn't right

Damn how could I be so naive
I let my guard down and there he went sellin me dreams
And it's a shame, I thought I had someone on my team
But he was slowly tryna break down my self-esteem
Tryna control me and everywhere I went
From the clothes I wore to the friends I kept
Kept tracking my every step, thinkin I'm creepin with someone else
Man I played myself, I betrayed myself
I had to let him go cus disrespect is what I felt

He treat me right, he did me wrong
He made me weak, he made me strong
He pissed me off, he turned me on
He made me realize I'm betta off alone
(Nowwhat he do) He made me laugh, he made me cry
He kept it real, then he would he lie
He made me cum, he made me fight
He made me realize he just wasn't right

Sleepin with the enemy is what I did
He made all the right moves just to reel me in
I should of stuck with my friends or listened to kins
And Id of never got caught up in this situation
But I'm ok, I'm standin on my own two
I'm independent and I'm strong and I'm so over you
I thank God everyday for pullin me through

Cus everything you did to me I already done to you

He treat me right, he did me wrong
He made me weak, he made me strong
He pissed me off, he turned me on
He made me realize I'm betta off alone
(Nowwhat he do) He made me laugh, he made me cry
He kept it real, then he would he lie
He made me cum, he made me fight
He made me realize he just wasn't right
