

So into You

Ray Parker Jr.

All my life
I've elected
To keep my feelings
Well protected
I've acted like a fool
Trying to hide my heart from you
And never I have I felt this way
Or had the nerve to say

Girl I'm so into you, I'm so into you (into you)
Though I may not show it
I'm so into you, so into you (into you)
I open up my heart to you

As a boy
I grew up, being lonely and never in love
Now I just began to understand
A little more about romance
So I'm hoping you'll understand this lonely man

Cause I'm so into you, I'm so into you (into you)
Help me feel easy
I'm so into you, I'm so into you (into you)
I 'm putting all my trust into you

Honey your the first yes it's true
I want to experience love with you
So I'm hoping that you can get into me
Half as much as I am into you

I'm so into you, so into you (into you)
I want you in my life
I'm so into you, girl so into you (into you)

I'm in love, I'm in love with you
I'm in love, I'm in love with you

Baby I want you for my lady
Ooh, my lady
I swear I love you girl
I love you
