Serve The Song

Real Estate

Why do you go to all the trouble When you know what comes next And when you're wishing you had just a home What did you expect?

I woke up Sunday morning
Back where I belong
The chorus only interrupts
I sing to serve the song

All this hibernation
Has only left me tired
I feel I'd rather not leave the station
But lately I'm inspired

I woke up Sunday morning
Back where I belong
The chorus only interrupts
I sing to serve the song
