

Love To Love You

Rebecca St. James

So many things I wish to say to you
Hard as I try-words cannot explain
So I, lift my eyes and lift my hands
In awe of you, adoring you
And I want to say that I love you

Oh how I love to love You
Oh how I love to love You
I love to love You

So many things I wish to thank you for
Hard as I try, words cannot express my gratitude
So I, lift my heart and lift my soul
In awe of You, I worship you
And I want to say that I love you
And I want to say that I need you....

Oh how I love to love You
Oh how I love to love You
Cause I love
I love you Lord
I reach, I wait, I run, I praise
I love you

I am like the willow
Living by the streams
I drink of your river
I praise you for your love
I praise you for this peace
My Lord, my Love, my Life-giver

Oh how I love to love You
Oh how I love to love You

I wait (I love to love You)
I wait for you (I love to love You)
I reach, i reach for You (I love to love You)
Cause I love
I love You Lord
I reach, I wait, I run, I praise
I love You
I love to love You
