So many things I wish to say to you Hard as I try-words cannot explain So I, lift my eyes and lift my hands In awe of you, adoring you And I want to say that I love you Oh how I love to love You Oh how I love to love You I love to love You So many things I wish to thank you for Hard as I try, words cannot express my gratitude So I, lift my heart and lift my soul In awe of You, I worship you And I want to say that I love you And I want to say that I need you.... Oh how I love to love You Oh how I love to love You Cause I love I love you Lord I reach, I wait, I run, I praise I love you I am like the willow

I am like the willow
Living by the streams
I drink of your river
I praise you for your love
I praise you for this peace
My Lord, my Love, my Life-giver

Oh how I love to love You Oh how I love to love You

I wait (I love to love You)
I wait for you (I love to love You)
I reach, i reach for You (I love to love You)
Cause I love
I love You Lord
I reach, I wait, I run, I praise
I love You
I love to love You
