

The One Thing

Red Line Chemistry

One cold night stuck in my head
I two of use hear, you're saving me again
3 am comes way too fast
I'm never leaving...

All I ever needed wasn't quiet clear
All I ever needed I find it right here

One thing for me reach out and hold onto
One reason just to wake up and the day through
One awnser to a thousand questions I never knew
The one thing, the one thing is you

One more time settle in my mind
You're picking me up, when I need it
3 am comes way too slow
You got me believing

All I ever need wasn't quiet clear
All I ever needed I find it right here

One thing for me reach out and hold onto
One reason just to wake up and see the day through
One awnser to a thousand questions I never knew
The one thing, the one thing is

I know you can fix me (fix me)
Then Break me again
I want you to save me (save me)
Then throw me away
You are a tragedy in side of me, but I still need you to stay

All I ever needed wasn't quiet clear
All I ever needed, its right here.

One thing for me reach out and hold onto
One reason just to wake up and the day through
One awnser to a thousand, questions I never knew
The one thing, the one thing is you

(The one thing is you)
The one thing is you
(The one thing is you)
The one thing is you
(The one thing is you)
The one thing is you...
(The one thing is you)
