

Fight to Forget

Red

You're a monster in my mind
You're the one I can't leave behind
You crawled inside
I watched you die
Did you think that you could bury me?

Your love is a lie
I will fight to forget
Your love is a knife
I will die to forget

Did you get what you want from me?
You weren't the one that I thought you'd be Everything it cost, everything I lost
Did you think that you could erase me?

Your love is a lie
I will fight to forget
Your love is a knife
I will die to forget

I will fight to forget you
I will die to forget you
Love is all a lie
(LET ME GO, LET ME GO!)
Love is all a lie
(LET ME GO, LET ME GO!)

You're abandoned, you're broken down
Your sickness blame it on me!
Your hopelessness, your insanity
You're screaming, blame it on me!

Your love is a lie
I will fight to forget
Your love is a knife
I will die to forget

I WILL FIGHT TO FORGET YOU!
I WILL DIE TO FORGET YOU!
