

Life Seems So Clean

Reef

Send a message to the paupers
Almshouses have thirteen stories
Everybody come and join us
I don't see no walls before us

Let some stand up in the terrace
Like we still can at a rock gig
Sweating bodies up above us
Shouting as the drummer kicks off

Life seems so clean
Life seems so clean

Clean the place that you were brought up
And the friends that you were bored of
Everybody come and join us
I don't see no walls before us

Life seems so clean
Life seems so clean

Life seems so clean
Life seems so clean
Life seems so clean
Life seems so clean
