

Can You Hear The Rain, Love?

Richard Hawley

Look into my eyes
And stay for a while
We can close our eyes, love
And let the dreams come softly

Can you hear the rain, love?
Fall on your window
Can you hear the rain, love?
Gently fall

Here comes another tear
For the silence in me
And as its darkness clears
I wake you gently singing

Can you hear the rain, love?
Fall on your window
Can you hear the rain, love?
Gently fall

Oh it seems so far away
Oh it seems so far away
Oh it seems so far away
