

I'm Feelin' Sorry

Ricky Nelson

I told a little lie
Baby, I made you cry
That's why I'm feelin' blue
I'm feelin' sorry, I lied to you

I took your little heart
I tore it all apart
Now I'm missin' you
I'm feelin' sorry, I couldn't be true

I should have known better
I should have been truer
Well, I know that you're blue
But baby, I'm bluer

I want to find a way
Baby, to make you stay
But I know I'll never win
I'm feelin' sorry that I'm just a friend

You offered me true love
But I didn't take it
Gone away, do you forgive me?
But I'll never make it

I want to find a way
Baby, to make you stay
But I know I'll never win
I'm feelin' sorry that I'm just a friend

I'm feelin' sorry, well, I'm just a friend
