

Don't Think I'll Cry

Ricky Skaggs

My tears would fall each time you' leave me
My heart would break each time you take your love away
Those days are gone yeah you best believe me
Cause if you walk out this time you're walkin' out to stay.

And don't think I'll cry and I won't be blue
No I won't be wastin' my time waitin' here for you
Next time you walk out my heart's door
You won't be welcome here no more
I'll find another love a waitin' when we're through

It'd be so hard tryin' talk it over
After all this time we'd say we are through
We'd been apart much more time than we're together
And I been left behind too many times by you.

And don't think I'll cry and I won't be blue
No I won't be wastin' my time waitin' here for you
Next time you walk out my heart's door
You won't be welcome here no more
I'll find another love a waitin' when we're through.

Don't think I'll cry and I won't be blue
No I won't be wastin' my time waitin' here for you
Next time you walk out my heart's door
You won't be welcome here no more
I'll find another love a waitin' when we're through.

I'll find another love a waitin' when we're through...
