

Same Ol' Love

Ricky Skaggs

I'd pretend it was over
But over was a word I couldn't take
Each time I thought I'd left you
Well I'd find my way back to you the next day

I was foolish to think
That I could leave you for good
At times I thought I might
But now I know I never could

It's that same ol', same ol' love
All forgiving sent from up above
And your same ol', same ol' love
Is all I need, yes, I'll never get enough
Of your same ol' love

Other girls would have left me
If I had so much as said the word goodbye
But you stood there patiently
And watched my leaving turn into a lie

Heaven knows the kind of magic here
That keeps me hangin' on
As long as you're holding me
I know I can't go wrong

It's that same ol', same ol' love
All forgiving sent from up above
And your same ol', same ol' love
Is all I need, yes, I'll never get enough
Of your same ol' love

There's no chance of doing better
Or finding someone new
'Cause the truth is they don't make
Them any better than you

It's that same ol', same ol' love
All forgiving sent from up above
And your same ol', same ol' love
Is all I need, yes, I'll never get enough

It's your same ol', same ol' love
All forgiving sent from up above
And your same ol', same ol' love
Is all I need, yes, I'll never get enough
Of your same ol' love

Your same ol' love
Oh, your same ol' love
Your same ol' love