

Hard to Leave

Riley Green

Damn, we left a beautiful mess on the hardwood floor
Your dress, my jeans paint a hell of a scene from the night before
The last thing I wanna do is get in my truck
All fingers crossed that Chevy don't fire up

'Cause, girl, you make it hard to leave
You've got some kind of hold on me
You drive me wild, giving me that smile
In my shirt and these sheets
Girl, I can't make these boots
Take a single step away from you
Got a goodbye kiss that gets the best of me
Yeah, you make it hard to leave

I wish I had a dime for every single time you've made me late
Pulling these all-nighters might get me fired, but that's okay
I'd trade ten long hours on a roof in the summer heat
For another five minutes with you in this bed with me

'Cause, girl, you make it hard to leave
You've got some kind of hold on me
You drive me wild, giving me that smile
In my shirt and these sheets
Girl, I can't make these boots
Take a single step away from you
Got a goodbye kiss that gets the best of me
Yeah, you make it hard to leave
Yeah, you make it hard to leave

Lying here with you, the whole world can wait
There's just something 'bout you girl that makes it easy to stay

And hard to leave
You've got some kind of hold on me
You drive me wild, giving me that smile
In my shirt and these sheets
Girl, I can't make these boots
Take a single step away from you
Got a goodbye kiss that gets the best of me
Yeah, the goodbye kiss that gets the best of me
Yeah, you make it hard to leave
Yeah, you make it hard to leave
