

It Just Is

Rilo Kiley

Today's the day I realized
That I could be loved
It echoed through the park last night
He wasn't our son
He belonged to everyone

And this loss isn't good enough for sorrow or inspiration
It's such a loss for the good guys
Afraid of this life
That it just is
'Cause everybody dies

This loss isn't good enough for sorrow or inspiration
It's such a loss for the good guys
Afraid of this life
That it just is Everybody...

This loss isn't good enough for sorrow or inspiration
It's such a loss for the good guys
Afraid of this life
That it just is
'Cause everybody dies
