

World Turns Grey

Robin Schulz

When you told me we'd be together again
Did you know I believed in the words you said?
Did you think I knew you said it to her, too?
Oh, it's a modern world full of people just like you

Are our...
Are our...
Are our...
Are our...

Are our relationships nothing but stocks and bonds?
Do you calculate all the friends you have lost
Must we saturate ourselves?
It does nothing for you, it does nothing for your health

If you'd ask me, baby, I'd do anything for you
If you'd ask me, baby, I'd do anything for you

Are our...
Are our...
Are our...
Are our...

If you'd ask me, baby, I'd do anything for you
If you'd ask me, baby, I'd do anything for you

What can you say when the world turns grey?
It's such a shame!

Are our...
Are our...

If you'd ask me, baby
Are our...
If you'd ask me, baby
Are our...
