

The Ring

Robin Trower

The ring stands a circle that can never end
You tried to break it but it would not bend
The ring has a magic making two is one
You tried to take it but it can't be done

You set the circle on fire
Watched as the flames grew higher, higher

Don't try to tell me that you can't explain
I don't wanna hear your lies again
You lied but you only put yourself to shame
You lied and now you've got yourself to blame

You set the circle on fire
Watched as the flames grew higher, higher
