

Tide of Confusion

Robin Trower

So many being swept aside
By a tide of confusion
Give them freedom to decide
What to believe in
People flood like a river
After heavy rain
With hopes that no-one can deliver
Who should we blame

Seen the world
Lose it's mind
Time to push back
Against the tide
Time to push back
Against the tide

Some put themselves above us
Whose money paved the way
Tho it don't feel right or just
There will come a day

Seen the world
Lose it's mind
Time to push back
Against the tide
Time to push back
Against the tide

See how the empty words slither
Back into the undergrowth
While we beg for some wisdom
Or just a little truth

Seen the world
Lose it's mind
Time to push back
Against the tide
Time to push back
Against the tide

Seen the world
Lose it's mind
Time to push back
Against the tide
Time to push back
Against the tide of confusion
