

I Believe

Roch Voisine

As I'm walking in the falling rain Just thinking about you I do n't know if I should take a chance And love somebody In my mind there was a growing pain That my life would never be the same But now I know deep in my heart We'll be together now and forev er

(I believe) There's nothing stronger than love (I believe) Noth ing warmer than a rising sun And if we try to give it a chance We'll be together now and forever

As I'm walking in the pouring rain Just thinking about us That makes me want to go and turn the page And love somebody In my h eart now there's a growing faith That this flame will never eve r ever fade And now I feel deep in my soul We'll be together no w and forever

(I believe) There's nothing stronger than love (I believe) Noth ing warmer than a rising sun And if we try to give it a chance

I never knew what love could do Until the touch of your hand I feel the way to paradise And I'm going through I'm going throug h with you

I believe there's nothing stronger than love Nothing's warmer t han a rising sun And if we try to give it a chance We'll be tog ether together

(I believe) There's nothing stronger (I believe) Stronger than love And if we try to make it right (Give it a chance)
