

So Young

Ron Sexsmith

So young, so young at the start
So strong that it left its mark
Upon our hearts, so young
La, la, la, la, la, mmm, hmm

So strong, so strong we had no choice
We're pulled along by the ancient voice
Of girls and boys, so young
La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la

It's hard to believe that time can heal us all inside
And bring to life, these feelings that have died
Remembering the way we felt about each other
Love is like the rising sun, it's in our eyes

So young, so young at the end
Of a long day that was spent
Just being friends, so young
La, la, la, la, la
