

A Better Word For Love

Ronnie Milsap

Here's another morning
Soon she will be waking up
I watch her and wonder
If there's a better word for love

So many times I've told her
It never seems enough
So I keep searching for
A better word for love

Mumblng, stumbling
Wondering, will I find a way
I know, she knows
There's nothing more to say

Tonight when I'm out walking
I'll ask the stars above
If out there, somewhere
There's a better word for love

Mumblng, stumbling
Wondering, when I'll find a way
I know, she knows
There's nothing more to say

So here's another morning
Soon she'll be waking up
I guess I'll just hold her tight till
There's a better word for love
I guess I'll just hold her tight
Till there's a better word for love
