Calling Card

Rory Gallagher

If teardrops could flood an ocean
I have a notion, you'd try
You'd make it in extra fast time
Just as a pass time, easy as pie

Each time you cry, baby, cry
Just the way I did
The day you broke my heart
Cry, baby, cry
Table's turned and now you've learnt
You're not so smart

You broke every promise
You couldn't be true
You gave me the go by
Well, somebody knew when I needed you

So cry, baby, cry
My eyes are dry
I'm laughin' up my sleep
To see my cry baby cry

Cry, baby, cry, cry, baby, cry
Just the way I did
The day you broke my heart
Cry, baby, cry, you flew too high
Table's turned and now you've learnt
You're not so smart

You broke every promise
You couldn't be true
You gave me the go by
Well, somebody knew when I needed you

So cry, baby, cry
My eyes are dry
I'm laughin', yeah, laughin'
I'm laughin' up my sleep
To see my cry baby cry
