

Secret Agent

Rory Gallagher

My baby's got a secret agent
To watch me like a hawk
Well, my baby's got a secret agent
To watch me like a hawk

He knows each time I leave my house
He knows each time I move around

Secret agent, won't you please take my advice?
Now hear me, secret agent, secret agent
Won't you please head my advice?
You've crossed me once, don't cross me twice
I'm gonna cut you down to size

I'll make that man turn in his badge in the mornin'
I slip around but I'm too quick to catch in the morning
I'll make that man turns in his badge
I slip around him, I'm too quick to catch
No jealous woman, gonna keep tabs on me, yeah

Well, she's got that secret agent
And he's breathing down my spine, oh
Yes, she's got that secret agent
And he's breathing down my spine

He must like working overtime
Oh, I think I'm always hard to find

Oh, secret agent, secret agent
Gonna have a show down before long
Won't you listen, secret agent?
We're gonna have a show down before long

I know you pack a forty-four
I hope you know just what it's for
I know you pack a forty-four
I hope you know just what it's for
Just keep the shadow from my door
