

Don't Know

Rotersand

So I guess I've had enough of waiting
Got to go
The night is up, I see the dawn is breaking
But there's nowhere I can go

I don't know what to get, I don't know
I don't see where it's at, I don't know
I just left what is was right, I don't know
Painted black what was white, I don't know

Now I'm living in the land of promise
Did not know
Your fake is real and my deceit is honest
But there's nowhere I can go
