

Elements

Rotersand

Some are strangers
Don't know where to go
Some are broken
And I'll never know

Some are empty
Afraid to go insane
While souls of plenty
Are dancing in the rain

[Chorus]
And we all have
An element of doom
An element of life
An element of faith
And we all have

An element of hope
An element of love
An element of truth

Some are faceless
And some have a name
Some are rescued
And some cry in vain

Torn and shattered
Poisoned to the core
Does it matter?
The world outside your door

[Chorus]
