

Heart of Love

Rotersand

Confusion human nature
Unsettling news you read
And the writing on the walls there, oh

Different place to living in
Different worlds to see
Ain't there enough for all of our souls, no?

Again and again, again, again I ache

[Chorus]

Heaven's doors, how shall we ever find them...
...when we don't try, when we wait and hide?
Heaven's doors, I hope they're wide open...
...for those who die, in waves they die

"Again, again, again, again"
"Again, again, again, again"

"Again, again, again, again"
"Again, again, again, again"

Confusion human nature
Unsettling news you read
And the writing on the walls there, oh
Different place to living in
Different worlds to see
Ain't there enough for all of our souls, no?
Again and again, again, again I ache

[Chorus]

How shall we find sleep when the ark we drive is burning?
How shall we find peace when the heart of love is bleeding?

"How shall we find peace?"
