

Hey You

Rotersand

Hey, you standing here
With that sad track in your head
You with that look
Hey, you dancing here
Like you're drown towards the edge
You with that look

Are you waiting for someone?
Searching for something?
Yearning for something?
Burning for something?
You, are you ok?

Are you waiting for something?
Hoping for something?
Crying for something?
Dying for something?
You with that look

Are you looking for answeres?

To hush down the voices in your head
Repeated those bleak songs
That turn your colours pale and sad
Are you looking for answeres?

Are you looking for answeres?
To hush down the voices in your head
Repeated those bleak songs
That turn your colours pale and sad
Are you looking for answeres?
Missing a chance you never had
Crouching in your corner
Wishing you danced your life instead
