

Under Suspicion

Roy Orbison

Well I've been mistreated
Lied to and cheated
Misled and abused
Like an old rag you threw away

First you fill me with thunder
Then you let me go under
You can run, you can hide
But you ain't gonna get away

Cos you're under suspicion
Of leavin' the scene of a broken heart
Under suspicion of a hit and run love affair

Well you ain't got a conscience
And you've made me the victim
Of a cruel and unusual crime
Now you're under suspicion, under suspicion
Under suspicion of a hit and run love affair

No matter where you'll be going
I got ways of knowing
Somewhere down the line
You're gonna pay

Cos you're under suspicion
Of leavin' the scene of a broken heart
Under suspicion of a hit and run love affair

Well you ain't got a conscience
And you've made me the victim
Of a cruel and unusual crime
Now you're under suspicion, under suspicion
Under suspicion of a hit and run love affair

Under suspicion, under suspicion
Under suspicion, under suspicion...
