

Acting Crazy (it's A Breakdown)

Royal Wood

We've both been acting crazy Anne
Like we just invented love
Here inside these bedroom walls
There reads our message of

Our hands our feet our fingers know
The language that we speak
Tucked away inside us here
Our treasures we will keep

Just because the winds may blow
Our paths a separate way
Recall we knew what love was like
Inside us there we'll say

Backup
I will not get over you
I will not get over you
I will not get over you
I will not get over you

It's a breakdown
Not a breakup
