

All This Time

Ruff Endz

Your the only woman to love me at my worst
Your deep rivers of love has quenched my thirst
If I could turn back the hands of time
I would never ever hurt you, I'd press rewind
I was so nervous to let you in my life
Didn't give you my heart now I'm paying the price
If I can only get you to see, that without you I'm in misery

I know I said things I didn't mean but I know you still love me
Now I'm all alone you not answering your phone you won't call me
You're the only one who got the keys to heart so don't leave me
You been saying all along that I've been treating you wrong so
I'm sorry
After all this time it's you, After all this time it's you
I was blinded by my pride but girl your love pushed through
And now you got my heart, and I can't imagine us apart
And I promise to love you girl for all our days

Didn't know that you'd be the one
Didn't know you'd be like the sun
And shine your light into my world of rain and move the clouds away
Didn't know many times you were crying
Came home late girl you caught me lying
Girl your heart is filled up with doubt
All this time I'd been shutting you out

I know I said things I didn't mean but I know you still love me
Now I'm all alone you not answering your phone you won't call me
You're the only one who got the keys to heart so don't leave me
You been saying all along that I've been treating you wrong so
I'm sorry
After all this time it's you, After all this time it's you
I was blinded by my pride but girl your love pushed through
And now you got my heart, and I can't imagine us apart
And I promise to love you girl for all our days
