

Can't Let Go

Ruff Ryders

Each and every time, when I see that eye
Not going to give into her
Really round eyes, they reel me in
Hook line and sink, for I can't blink

I'm all in her mouth, and she's in my arms Caressing me, by then it's on
And we are both wrong, 'cause her boyfriend's cool
We all went to school with each other

But I can't let go
If I could, then I would
But it's outta my control
It seems as though, there's a spell on me

I tried to move away, leave her alone
Park down the road, act like I'm not home
But some kind of way, she reaches me
One look at her, my judgment is hurt

Or could it just be, that for her I'm weak
Is it because, she's freakin' me
Like little can, instead of him
One part of me, wish it all would end

But I can't let go
If I could, then I would
But it's outta my control
It seems as though, there's a spell on me

Can't let go
If I could, then I would
But it's outta my control
It seems as though, there's a spell on me

Everything that's good to me
Does not mean it's good for me

Can't let go
If I could, then I would
But it's outta my control
It seems as though, there's a spell on me

Can't let go
If I could, then I would
But it's outta my control
It seems as though, there's a spell on me
