

It's Only Another Parsec...

RX Bandits

These words i write to you my dear,
Are sparks to turn the dark to light,
Invariable presence.
If the weight it seems too great,
May this melody invigorate,
And empower your persistence.

Prepared a splint in your soul, they got it

The world is yours to devour,

These notes i pen to you my friend,
Are swords to slice through your distress.
And dissolve your dejection.
And may this harmony create,
A sanctuary for escape.
To provide a volition

And you got,
An invincible design,
An invincible design,
All i can do is play,
All you got,
An invincible design,
An invincible design,
I tell you, all i can do is play,

Shall we be terrified of the unknown?
Insurgent vicissitude of time!
Shall we be terrified of the.

If your bored then your probably boring.

And you got,
An invincible design,
An invincible design,
I tell you all i can do is play,
All you got,
An invincible design,
An invincible design,
I tell you, all i can do is play,
