

When it all began not everything was perfect
but now it's the most beautiful thing in the world.
When I look in your eyes
it's like the rising sun and when I hug you, it's like a flying through the space.
When the time comes,
that we are apart
when you aren't close to me it is hard to imagine the sorrow.
I miss you so much
I wanna hold your hand
I dream about your touch
I wanna always be with you.
I miss you so much
I wanna hold your hand
I dream about your touch
I wanna always be with you.
I hope, that you will be close to me.
I feel like a prisoner in my own heart
when you are so far from me, I have only your scarf.
Last week was amazing
many moments with you four days feel like years and I just wanna be with you
and over and over again
I just wanna be with you
and over and over again.
I miss you so much
I wanna hold your hand
I dream about your touch
I wanna always be with you.
I miss you so much
I wanna hold your hand
I dream about your touch
I wanna always be with you.
I hope, that you will be close to me.
JeEeEeE...
My thoughts are all about you my heart belongs to you.
I miss you so much
I wanna hold your hand
I dream about your touch
I wanna always be with you.
I miss you so much
I wanna hold your hand
I dream about your touch
I wanna always be with you.
I miss you so much
I wanna hold your hand. JeEeEeE...
I miss you so much
I wanna hold your hand. JeEeEeE...
I hope, that you will be close to me.
