

Slumber As the Option

Sad Harmony

Is there the reason to wake up
Is there the reason to stay awake
This is my last motion
Bye, bye reality, you're coming late

Dream will try to get you

Head slowly leans to my shoulder
Mr. midnight point the finger on my eyes
Moon the lamb - pale as ever
With sleeping beauty in embrace

It gains my trust
There are things we just can't see
It works, it does
Like a house falling into the sea
I've been where i liked
Never sweating never tired
Now i'm turning around
But don't wake me up anyway!
