

Heather

Saint Etienne

Heather was a girl who could open her eyes
Heather was a girl who just woke up one night
Heather was a girl who once questioned her life
She comes and she goes like the warmth in the daylight

Oh, just what I wanted
Pictures of Heather, her hair down
Whispers when
So, this house is haunted
I feel my own subconscious drown
Happens so

Heather to the left and to the right
Having such fun though I'm bruised black and blue tonight
Heather on the left and on the right
Heather set a firework setting the sky alight

Heather was a girl who could open her eyes
Heather was a girl who just woke up one night
Heather was a girl who once questioned her life
She comes and she goes like the warmth in the daylight

Oh, still taking chances
Curious girl sat on her throne
Sleep alone
For her victim pictures
They can take over all my heart
Tonight

Heather to the left and to the right
Having such fun though I'm bruised black and blue tonight
Heather set a firework setting the sky alight

Heather was a girl who could open her eyes
Heather was a girl who just woke up one night
Heather was a girl who once questioned her life
She comes and she goes like the warmth in the daylight

This house is haunted
This house is haunted

This house is haunted
This house is haunted
