

Heart Has A Mind Of Its Own

Sammie

you don't get to tell your heart how to feel it does what it wants when it wants to... all that you can do is pray that it lands in the hands of somebody true!
and you don't get to tell your heart where to stay no it will not obey cause it knows the truth let's not confuse it! you try to prove it wrong but the heart has a mind of its own chorus:

you can't run from the place that you belong cause if you run, you'll be feeling so alone before you know, you'll be picking up the phone cause the heart has a mind of its own!
can't fight that burning in your chest you can't fight, feeling such a mess your hear decides, but it's you that second guest
cause the heart has a mind of its own!

you don't get to fall at the perfect time for someone love is ending, for someone else is just beginning someone is gotta cry, someone needs to know why but the heart tells no lies! and you don't get to tell your heart when it heels when it breaks like rock through shatter glass all you can ask is that the pain moves fast one day this too, shall last! by know i hope you know, it has a mind of its own!

chorus:

you can't run from the place that you belong
cause if you run, you'll be feeling so alone
before you know, you'll be picking up the phone
cause the heart has a mind of its own!
can't fight that burning in your chest
you can't fight, feeling such a mess
your hear decides, but it's you that second guest
cause the heart has a mind of its own!

it's so real, can't you see it? is the heart that really means it and the heart won't let you lie, it won't let love be defeated!
sometimes is inconvenient, but the real truth is you need it cause the mind will leave you lonely

chorus:

you can't run from the place that you belong
cause if you run, you'll be feeling so alone
before you know, you'll be picking up the phone
cause the heart has a mind of its own!
can't fight that burning in your chest
you can't fight, feeling such a mess
your hear decides, but it's you that second guest
cause the heart has a mind of its own!
